

Six Thinking Hats ©

Tools for creativity, problem solving and decision making.

Have you ever been in meetings where a lot of time was wasted on fruitless discussions, in absence of a structured approach to explore ideas and find solutions? Or where the back and forth of ideas led to ego battles that hijacked the meeting from its original purpose?

Six Thinking Hats©© offers a structured approach to meetings, which takes participants beyond their instinctive positions so they can explore a wide range of perspectives, use their creativity, and improve their decision making and problem solving.

Six Thinking Hats ©
